We aim to ensure all recruitment processes result in the best people joining the Heywood Rural Health team, so that we continue to deliver high quality services to our communities.

Preparing your application

Your application is your introduction to those who will form the selection panel, and the information you provide will be the basis on which the panel will assess your suitability for the position.

To ensure the panel can accurately assess your suitability when shortlisting applicants, it is important to include the following:

Cover Letter

Cover letters are a great way to introduce yourself and show how you will be a good fit for both the advertised position and for Heywood Rural Health. You can do this by keeping your letter relevant to the position and focus on the requirements for the role.

Statement Addressing the Key Selection Criteria

The Key Selection Criteria for each position details the knowledge, skills, experience and qualities that have been deemed essential for applicants to possess to be successful in the position. All applications received are assessed against the Key Selection Criteria when shortlisting is conducted, so it is essential you address the criteria in your application. This can also be addressed in your cover letter.

Current Resume

A current resume detailing your employment history, educational history and qualifications, skills and experience must be provided. Please ensure your resume includes your up-to-date contact details, including a telephone number, so you may be contacted if required.

Current Referees

The names, position titles and contact telephone numbers of at least three professional (work-related) referees must be provided. These should include a direct supervisor and/or a current employer.

Heywood Rural Health is pleased to accept all applications for positions and does not favour hand written applications over typed applications or vice versa. However, all applications should be neat and legible for ease of reading. Please staple together all information; do not enclose your application in a folder.

Submitting your application

All applications are treated with the strictest confidentiality and are to be addressed as follows:

Confidential

Erin Wilson
People & Culture Facilitator
Heywood Rural Health
PO Box 159
Heywood Vic 3304

Alternatively, applications may be submitted via email to the people and culture department:

hr@heywoodruralhealth.vic.gov.au

Applications for positions must be received by the nominated closing date and time. Applications received after this time will not be considered.

All applicants will be contacted by the People & Culture department to confirm receipt of their application.

This notification will be via email, or via post or phone when no email address is received for the applicant. If you do not receive confirmation that your application has been received, please check your “Junk” email folder prior to contacting Heywood rural health

THE SELECTION PROCESS

Heywood Rural Health has a robust selection process to ensure all decision are based on merit, and are not influenced by personal bias or conflicts of interest.

Shortlisting and Notifications

Candidates are assessed against the Key Selection Criteria for the position and against the other applications received. Considerations include the applicant’s fit with our culture, the team, and the duties to be performed.

Although timeframes may vary, shortlisting is usually completed within two-weeks of the closing date. You will either receive a phone call inviting you to an interview for the position, or written notification that you have been unsuccessful within four-weeks of the closing date.

Interviews

All shortlisted applicants will receive a phone call to be offered an interview and will receive written confirmation of the interview time, date and location once agreed.

Where practical, all interviews will be conducted face-to-face with a selection panel of two or three individuals. Candidates will be asked a selection of pre-determined interview questions and may also be required to complete a practical test, element or presentation relating to the position or the Key Selection Criteria for the role.

Applicants selected for interview who have any special requirements or require assistance for the interview process are asked to inform the People & Culture department to ensure necessary arrangements are in place.

Pre Employment Checks

Following interviews being conducted, the panel will decide upon a recommended applicant who will be invited to undertake all relevant pre-employment checks for this position.

The checks required will vary dependent on the role to be offered, but may include:

- At least two referee checks, one of which must be from your line Manager;
- A Police check;
- Vaccination Evidence:
 - Current year Influenza Vaccination
 - All three Mandatory Covid Vaccinations

Confirmation the employee holds all relevant qualifications and licences where required for the position including:

- Driver's Licence
- Formal qualification/s

Once a person has been determined to be the preferred applicant, all documentation needed to complete the required checks will be forwarded to the successful candidate for completion; the documentation is to be returned to hr@heywoodruralhealth.vic.gov.au

OFFER OF EMPLOYMENT/UNSUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES

An offer of employment will be formally made once a preferred applicant has returned and satisfactorily passed all required pre-employment checks.

Once verbally accepted, a formal letter of offer pack comprising the letter of offer, position description and relevant HR forms (contact details, tax file number, etc.) will be forwarded to the applicant via email.

All interviewed applicants unsuccessful in obtaining the position will be notified of the outcome of the position via phone call or written notification
